A CROP OF KISSES.

From her lips I go a-singin' in the mornin' cool

When the dew's on the furrow an the hills are blue

An I kiss her at the partin'—she's the sweetest thing in life—

Like I used to kiss my sweetheart 'fore my sweetheart was my wife.

It's kind of "goodby" kiss—though it's kissin' mighty soon.

An I say, "I'll make it last me till the shadders part to noon."

An the next mornin' she kissed her, "an the winds sing 'So did we.'"

When some wild rose comes a-bloom an' jes' stuns her kiss from me.

Then the plow stands in the furrow, an my dream in eyes I shield

As I look where last I left her as I sang across the field.

"Here's th' winds a-laughin' at me, here's the lark a-singin' this."

"He's kissin' I, I, I, kissed her, kissed her, but the rose has stole the kiss."

Then with all the birds a-singin' an a-twittin' meso ever

I lose sight o' all the grasses round the corn blades at my feet

An my heart licks sing 'He kissed her,' an the winds sing 'So did we.'"

"Will you make a crop o' kisses or another crop o' lays?"

An I don't know how to answer, for I'm thinkin, an I see

Like a feller jes' a-wakin' from the middle of a dream

An here's out o' him, with his name a-flowin' free.

An the rose that stole her kisses—well, she kisses it an me.

Origin of "Cases Pending."

"Cases pending," said a gentleman the other evening to a number of gentlemen as they sat watching the smoke form the Havanas curl upward in graceful clouds.

"Now, there is a term in legal parlance you hear every day, and yet how many of you know how it originated?"

Not one knew, and he continued:

"Centuries ago in Germany, when people were just beginning to seek redress at law, the courts had not the intricate machinery and manner of keeping records they now have. Still the cases multiplied, and they used to write them down on a sheet of paper. These in time accumulated, so they stuck them on a long wire which hung over the judge's table. They used to take them off at the bottom of the pile, while the clerk always put the fresh ones on the top.

"Then there was always a pile of cases hanging over the judge's table, and so the term 'cases pending' naturally came into use."—Philadelphia

Adulteration of Rubber.

The adulteration of rubber is something remarkable, and in order to make it weigh more barytes, white lead or most anything is used. The consumer is attracted to the product because it is cheap, but he pays just so much more per pound in the heavy minerals compound. Inating men use a very cheap rubber coming from the eastern coast of Mexico and Nicaragua. It sells for about 15 cents per pound and can hardly be called rubber. Chile is very cheap and used in the manufacture of chewing gum. The whole subject is

THE FRENCH PRESIDENT ASSASSINATED.

France mourns the untimely death of President Carnot, and the United States sympathizes with the French Republic. While attending the exposition at Lyons, the President was banqueting by the Chamber of Commerce. While being driven from the Chamber on Sunday evening a young man jumped on the carriage step and plunged a dagger into the President's breast, inflicting a fatal wound. The assassin is an Italian named Giovanni Santo, who proclaims himself an anarchist. He was arrested and the police are endeavoring to ascertain who his accomplices are, as they are satisfied of the existence of a conspiracy to avenge the death of Valliant and Emile enri.

The deepest regret is expressed by Italy, England, Germany and other European nations over the tragic event. The United States Senate adopted resolutions expressing to the people of France the sorrow and sympathy of the American people; the President telegraphed words of condolence to adame Carnot and of sympathy to the French Government, and both Houses of Congress adjourned as a token of respect.

M. Sadi Carnot was born in August, 1837, and in 1884 was elected President of France to succeed M. Grevy. He was a conservative and popular executive and under his administration the Republic was materially strengthened, only a few Royalists having seats in the Chamber of Deputies. His assassination will intensify the feeling existing against anarchists, and probably result in more rigid legislation against them, especially if it is shown that Santo is a member of an anarchistic organization and not a lunatic.

It is remarkable that Presidents of Republics, elected by the people, rather than hereditary rulers and despots, should be the victims of assassins. Within thirty years two Presidents of the United States and a President of France have been assassinated, while in that time only one hereditary ruler, the Czar of Russia, met a similar fate. The murder of President Carnot has no more significance than that of President Lincoln or President Garfield, or Mayor Harrison of Chicago, unless there is reason to believe that his murderer is a member of a band of assassins organized to dispose of all the rulers of Europe.

BOYCOTTING PULLMAN CARS.

The employees of the Pullman Car Works at Pullman, Illinois, struck against a reduction of wages. The actory is situated near Chicago in what the Pullman Land Company styles a "model" town. The company refused to submit the differences between it and the employees to arbitration. The American Railway Union appointed a committee to investigate the grievances of the strikers. The report of that committee, the Chicago Times says, conclusively demonstrates the justice of the strike and proves very charge of wage-cutting and rent-rinding made against George M. Pullman by the unhappy inhabitants of his model town. In the different departments of construction wages have been reduced from 47 to 57 per cent, while this reduction is being enforced, dividend of 9 1/2 per cent was paid on capitalization of $30,000,000 last year. Water which the company buys at a rate of 8 cents per thousand gallons is sold to tenants at a big profit, and gas which the company buys at 75 cents per thousand feet is sold to tenants at 2 25 per thousand feet. Rents were advanced during the World's Fair and have not been reduced since then notwithstanding the reduction in wages.

The American Railway Union, which said to embrace men employed in every department of the railroad service, resolved to boycott Pullman cars, beginning to-morrow, unless the company meanwhile agrees to arbitrate. It is said, will refuse to and the cars, engineers will decline to pull them, brakemen will not couple on to trains and they will be sidetracked on every road on which they are used. Superintendent Wyck of the Pullman company does not believe the Railway Union can enforce the boycott. He says the roads are under contract to haul the cars and the traveling public will be subjected to great inconvenience if they do not. Relying on the ability of the several roads to get their employees to handle the cars the Pullman company defies the Union and positively refuses to discuss the strike with its arbitration committee.

THE COLORADO OUTRAGE

Adjutant General Tarnsney of the Colorado militia took an active part in rolling disturbances at Cripple Creek. He advised the miners after the troops arrived at the scene and prevented a conflict between them and the deputies. He latter, who were principally "roughs" from Denver, paid by the day, did not care to have order restored, as he deprived them of a job, and they sought revenge. While stopping at Colorado Springs, General Tarnsney was called from his room at the hotel telephone at midnight and invited inside. Then he was pushed into a carriage, taken thirteen miles out on a prairie, tarred and feathered and deroed to travel in a certain direction. He never set foot in Colorado Springs Cripple Creek again or his life would y the forfeit. This outrage is supposed to have been perpetrated by the deputies; in fact, the accusations of his assailants leave no room for doubt on that point in the mind of General Tarnsney.

The respectable citizens of Colorado are justly indignant over the brutal assault. The Governor has offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators. The State Treasurer has supplemented this with a personal reward of $250, and the Committee of Public Safety of Colorado Springs resolved that every effort be made by local and county authorities, regardless of expense, to apprehend those engaged in the outrage. The militia are indignant at the brutal treatment of one of their principal officers and the miners, though engaged by the outrage, take satisfaction in the fact that the true character of the men who were deputized to represent law and order has been proved by themselves.

As liberal rewards are being offered for the arrest and conviction of those engaged in the unprovoked and dastardly outrage, it is probable that some, if not all of them, will receive their just deserts.

CARNOT ASSASSINATED.

Stabbed in His Carriage at Lyons.

THE ASSASSIN ARRESTED.

Condolence and Sympathy From Other Nations.

PARIS, June 25.—All Europe is horrified over the assassination of President Carnot of France. The tragedy occurred at Lyons, where President Carnot was visiting the Exhibition. While he was being driven from the Chamber of Commerce, where a banquet had been given, a young man jumped from the crowd and sprang upon the step of the carriage and plunged a dagger into Carnot's abdomen. The assassin, a young Italian, supposed to be an Anarchist, was captured by the police.

THIS FEELING IN FRANCE.

The deepest sorrow, dismay and anger prevails throughout France over the cowardly assassination of President Carnot. Telegrams of sympathy are pouring in from all points. Newspapers of all shades of opinion deplore the assassination. Throughout France flags are at halfmast and public buildings are draped.

THE BEREAVED FAMILY.

Mme. Carnot, accompanied by her three sons arrived at Lyons this morning. She proceeded immediately to the Prefecture, where the body of the late President reposes in state.

The death chamber was cleared and the family left alone. They remained a long time in prayer before the bier, then the widow was led away by her sons, all weeping bitterly. Later the remains were photographed.

It is stated that Mme. Carnot does not desire the body embalmed, and wishes it removed immediately from Lyons to this city. High officers of the President's military household and Sisters of Charity watched the remains throughout the night. The Prefecture is surrounded by troops and a strong detachment is guarding the building in which Giovanni Santo, the assassin, was confined.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

On the boulevards scenes of the greatest excitement have been witnessed to-day. The police had difficulty in dispersing the crowds of angry people who had assembled at different points calling for vengeance against the murderer and his supposed accomplices. Several Italian flags displayed out of sympathy with France, unless draped with crepe, were hooted at, and at least one was torn into shreds.

In every quarter fierce demonstrations against Italian residents have taken place. Nearly all the Italian cafes and restaurants have been closed. But if the feeling against Italians is strong, the sentiment of hatred with which the majority regard the Anarchists is still stronger. The murder, Santo, has boldly asserted he is an Anarchist. It is reported that the police are convinced that the assassination of Carnot is the result of a plot.

The Government will propose to the Chambers that Carnot be accorded a National funeral.

WHO SANTO IS.

Santo, Carnot's assassin, is a baker, and was tried in Milan in 1892 for breach of peace, but was acquitted. Santo delivered an Anarchist lecture of the vilest character before going to Switzerland last year.

There no longer seems to be much doubt that the assassination was the result of an Anarchistic conspiracy to avenge the deaths of Valliant and Emile Henri. Twenty detectives have gone to Certe, Department of Aierfalt, where Santo was recently domiciled, to track down his supposed accomplices.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE AND SYMPATHY.

The President of the Italian Chamber of Commerce drew up an address of condolence, which was signed by the chief Italian residents and presented to Premier Depuy, who also received a message from Baron Blanc, Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, saying that King Humbert, the Italian nation, the two Chambers and the Government of Italy share the grief into which France has been plunged by the hand of an Italian Anarchist, a man without a country.

Signor Kessmar, Italian Ambassador, received a dispatch this afternoon from Rome saying that investigation by the Italian authorities shows that Santo is not an Italian, but comes from Ticino, the southernmost canton of Switzerland, where a majority of the inhabitants speak Italian.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The death of President Carnot was the subject of prayer by the Rev. Mr. Millburn in the Senate. Senator Morgan, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, offered the following:

Resolved, That the Senate of the United States unites with the American people in expressing to the people of France sorrow and sympathy in the National bereavement they are suffering, from the cruel blow of an assassin, which was aimed at the peace of France and fell upon the heart of President Carnot, and as a mark of respect due to the memory of the wise, virtuous and patriotic President of the Republic of France, the Senate will, at the close of this proceeding, stand adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

The President of the United States is requested to communicate this expression of National sorrow to the Government of the Republic of France and to Mme. Carnot.

Morgan, in a brief speech, referred to the patriotism of the people of the French Republic and the cordiality of the relations between the two Republics.

At 10:30 the Senate adjourned. After passing resolutions of sorrow and condolence with the French people and Mme. Carnot, the House adjourned out of respect.

President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham this morning forwarded telegrams of sympathy to the French Government and Mme. Carnot.

LONDON, June 25.—Following the precedent adopted at the time of the death of Garfield, the British Court will be in mourning out of respect to the memory of President Carnot.

The House of Commons to-day adopted an address expressing sorrow, indignation and abhorrence at the murder of President Carnot and sympathy with France.

BERLIN, June 25.—The assassination of President Carnot has created a profound sensation in Berlin. All classes are indignant. Emperor William telegraphed Mme. Carnot his condolence in warmly sympathetic terms.

Rome, June 25.—All Italian Bourses have been closed out of sympathy for France.

TWENTY EXCURSIONISTS DROWNED

An Overloaded Tug Capsizes and Goes Down.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The tug James D. Nichol, with sixty-three excursionists and a crew of ten or twelve, sank at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon three miles off the Highlands. Fifty-four of those on board have been accounted for. The tug left Fifth street and East river at 7:30 yesterday morning for the fishing grounds.

It is said she had a license to carry fifty passengers, but sixty-three tickets were sold. The tug reached the banks on time, but the sea was too rough for comfort and about noon she started back. When about three miles east of the Highlands waves began to break over the starboard rail. The passengers began to run to the port side and to climb on top of the deckhouse. The boat careened alarmingly to port and the water swept over the rail. The terror-stricken men rushed back to starboard and the tug swung deeply down on that side. The Captain, Wm. Hyatt, stood bravely to his post and sounded the whistle for help.

Even as he did so the tug filled with water and went down like a stone. The Clyde steamer Algonquin, a mile away, heard it and swung around to go to the rescue. Other tugs responded to the signal and did what was possible to save life.

Altogether fifty-four out of seventy-five have been accounted for. A few hours after sinking the tug was pretty well broken up and the wreckage began to come ashore. Before night the entire beach was strewn with it, but no bodies came ashore.

A New Railroad.

SALT LAKE, Utah, June 25.—Captain de Lamar, a large mine owner in the Ferguson district, near Pioche, Nev., is in the city and says a number of capitalists have formed a pool to build a railroad from Milford, Utah, to Pioche, and that when completed the ore from that district will be shipped to the Salt Lake valley for treatment. The Union Pacific road had nearly 100 miles of grading done to the southwest during the last year of George Francis Adams' management of the road, and it is supposed the projectors of the proposed line will take advantage of the work already done.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN said the contraction of the currency by a government that had contracted a debt with a certain amount in circulation "is the most heinous crime a government could commit against the people," and Daniel Webster declared that "liberty cannot endure where the tendency of legislation is to concentrate wealth in the hands of a few."

A cyclone on Sunday evening unroofed many buildings at Galesburg, Illinois.

LOU PARKS' SCALP.

Taken by an Indian, Then Grafted Back in Place as Good as New.

A tall old man, with hair rapidly changing from gray to white, sauntered into the Arlington. A peculiar feature about his head attracted the attention of an observer. Shining through his thin locks and forming a semicircle on the back of the scalp was a bright red irregular line. The card that he twirled nervously in his fingers bore the name of Louis Parks, and a red scoundrel's in the lobby gazed him affectionately as Lou. When he went out his friend talked about him to a circle of interested loungers. "That was old Lou Parks," he remarked, with an infection of admiration. "He was one of us when we went up into the Bitter Root country, away back in 1853. Did you notice that red ring on his head? Well, gentlemen, the ragged edge of a Blackfoot's knife made that scar, and all the skin and hair inside of it were torn from the skull by a red scoundrel's muscular arm. The event occurred just about where Pocahello, Ida., now is.

"Lou Parks and three other white men had gone over in that neighborhood to search for something or other, I forget what, and one day Lou went out from camp to kill some meat. The other fellows heard him shoot once, and after awhile wondered why he didn't bring his game into camp or shoot again, as the country just swarmed with game. Then they concluded to go out and find out what was the matter.

"About half or three-quarters of a mile away they saw a man lying in some bushes and rode up to find Lou. He was unconscious, and his head was covered with blood pouring from a hole about as big as a tin cup. It was easy to see he had been scalped. No Indians had been seen in the neighborhood, and the boys couldn't understand where they had gone, because Lou's gun and knife were still with him. They looked around for signs, and deeper in the chaparral, about 20 yards away, found the dead body of a Blackfoot Indian. He was shot in the spine, and in his clinched hand was a bunch of hair. It was Lou's scalp.

"The boys loosened the Indian's grasp and released the thing, and one of them suggested the bright idea of sticking it back on Lou's head. They washed it in water from one fellow's leather bottle and washed their partner's head. Then they lifted the scalp back in place and tied it on with strips of horse blanket. When Lou came to his senses, he said that he was kneeling down waiting for an elk, which he thought he heard below him, to come along, when he suddenly felt something grab his hair from behind and then pull the whole top of his head off. He said that before he went off he saw something black go in front of him and pulled his rifle's trigger as he himself fell forward on his face.

"For months he lingered between life and death, but finally recovered. When the blanket strip bandage was taken off, some time after the attack, by an army surgeon at a post 400 or 500 miles away, where Lou was taken, it was found that the scalp had begun to grow on again, and after several years' treatment it became as you see it now. Lou would give a cow any time to find out what that Indian was doing out there alone and why he took the chances on scalping him alive when he had a dead clutch on getting his hair by sticking the knife in his neck first. Lou is here from Missouri, where he is now living, but he ain't after any postoffice, you can bet."

A FAMOUS WOMAN MOONSHINER
The Death of Mollie Miller, Once the Head of a Desperate Gang.
Information has reached this office through a southern detective that Mollie Miller, the woman moonshiner of Polk county, Tenn., died a few days ago at her home in the mountains.
Her operations at one time were carried on very extensively, and she was at the head of a gang which was involved in more bloody fights with revenue officers than any other organized in the south. Her first experience was in the mountains of Sevier county, where she assisted her father, Sam Miller. Here Deputy Marshal McPherson led a raid under a guide who had a grudge against Miller. In an almost inaccessible gorge the officers encountered the moonshiners.
A bloody fight followed, and three of the revenue men were killed, the others retreating. It was noticed that a young girl was one of the party, and it has always been believed that she killed one of the officers. Another raid was made in which Miller was killed and his associates captured. About this time the revenue officers received a box containing the remains of the man who had informed upon the gang. There was nothing to indicate from whom it came, and the box must have been carried by wagon and left at the marshal's house.
The woman was not found, and it was soon known that she had fled. In a few months Polk county, which had always furnished considerable illicit whisky, became the headquarters of the moonshiners throughout east Tennessee, and raid followed raid until there was scarcely a cave on the Hiwassee river that had not been the scene of some bloody fight between the moonshiners and revenue men.
It became known that this woman was a leader, but she was never arrested but once, and then the proof was such that she escaped with a light sentence. After the Knoxville Southern railroad was built the country became too easy of access, and with the exception of an occasional petty offender the gang was broken up. The woman moonshiner retired to a small farm, where she remained undisturbed, except at two or three times, when she was taken to Chattanooga as a witness, when she would collect her fees and start on a walk over the mountains, a distance of 60 miles, to her home.
It is supposed that the killing of three revenue officers and four or five inform-ers can be charged to her directly, while the gang of which she was a member could be held accountable for several others, but it was never possible to prove these charges, and she died without ever having been tried for them. - Cincinnati Enquirer.

AFRAID OF THE MINUT.
The Gallantry of Senator Dubois Makes Him the Butt of Puns.
Senator Dubois is fearfully annoyed by a story which has gained currency in the press throughout the country that he would be one of the society men who will shortly dance the minuet at a fashionable charity entertainment in this city. It originated in a little pleas-antry, but it will probably raise havoc among the senator's mining constituency in Idaho. The way the senator explains it is as follows: He was at a dinner a short time ago and was sitting next to Mrs. Carlisle.
"Of course you have heard of the charity entertainment that we are getting up," said Mrs. Carlisle. "I was just thinking you would cut a charming figure in the minuet."
Of course the rudimentary instincts of gallantry - and Mr. Dubois is a gallant gentleman - dictated a ready assent to the proposition.
"Why, I should be charmed," said the senator, with one of his most winning smiles.
The matter passed with that, and the senator thought no more of it until a number of ladies one day met him and began to felicitate themselves upon the prospect of seeing him trend the stately minuet.
The senator tried to laugh it off, but as fate would have it a designing newspaper man was within earshot, and he told a dozen of his colleagues that Dubois would dance in the minuet. From that day on the senator has had a daily insultation of the story thrust under his nose in every newspaper he has taken in his hands.
"If that story gets out to Idaho," exclaimed the senator in comical despair the other day, "I shall be ruined!" At last accounts he had left the city to weather out the storm at the home of Senator Proctor in Vermont. - Washington Post.

Church People Shocked.
Old fashioned English men and women, who without being puritanical, like to go to church once a week with their families and spend the Sabbath decorously, have learned with something like a shock that the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and other male members of the royal family were guests on Sunday night of Baron Alfred de Rothschild at what is described as a brilliant supper party, and which, rumor declares, was a decidedly riotous affair. Patti was there, and her husband and other stars of various firmaments, and there was singing galaire by way of adding piquancy. -

The Cheese Cut.
The monster cheese which was a conspicuous feature of the Canadian section of the Chicago exhibition last year has just been cut in London. It weighed 10 tons and was produced in September, 1892, under government auspices, at Perth, Ont.; 207,250 pounds of milk, obtained from 12,000 cows, was used in making it. When tasted, the cheese was pronounced to be very good. - London

BALD HEADS!
What is the condition of yours? Is your hair harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower
Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the disease of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a dye, but a delicately cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, scales, feeds on it.

If your draught cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward postpaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Box, 50c per pair; 6 for $2.50.
